THE MONDAY
REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

October 31, 1983
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

***

MUSICAL REVUE SCHEDULED

The Shelton Singers will present their first performance of the year, a musical revue, on Tuesday, November 15, at 12 noon and 7:30 p.m. in the Junior College auditorium. Costumes and a backdrop of the New York skyline will be part of the revue, according to Joy Dendy, director of the Shelton Singers.

Songs in the revue include: "It's a Grand Night for Singing," from "State Fair," "The Way You Look Tonight," featuring Lisa Plowman, 1983 Miss Shelton State; "There's Nothing Like a Dame," from "South Pacific," "Tea for Two," from "No, No Nanette;" and "New York, New York," featuring Tresa Hardin.

There will also be solos and duets by members of the singers who are voice students of Eleanor McElvy. Accompanists for the revue are Sam Robinson and Ted Miller.

****

NORMAN LUBOFF CHOIR NEXT ON STAR SERIES

The Norman Luboff Choir will be in Tuscaloosa on Thursday, November 17 at 8 p.m. at the Bama Theatre as part of the Star Series, sponsored in part by Shelton State Community College. The artistic range of the Norman Luboff Choir is unparalleled in all of vocal music. With over 50 LP's, a decade of highly successful concert engagements, and a host of television appearances to their credit, The Norman Luboff Choir is unquestionably the leader in its field today.

For information on tickets, contact the Bama Theatre.

****

DON'T FORGET UBA'S CAREER DAY

Don't forget the Health Career shceduled by University of Alabama in Birmingham on Thursday, November 10, 1983. The meeting will be held at the Regional Technical Institute (RTI) and reservations should be made by November 1. Careers to be highlighted include: Anesthesia for Nurses; Biomedical equipment Technology; Cytotechnology; Dental Assistaing; Dental Hugiend; Dental Laboratory Technology; Dentistry; Emergency Medical Services; Graduate Studies; Hospital and Health Administration; Medical Assistant; Medical Records; Medical Technology; Medicien; Multiple Competency Clinical Technician; Nuclear Medicien Technology; Nursing; Nurtition and Dietetics; Occupational Therapy; Optometry; Physcial Therapy; Radiation Therapy Technology; Radiologic Technology; Respiratory Therapy; and Surgeon's Assistant.

****

TECHNICAL TALK

NEWS FROM THE LPN PROGRAM. . . .Miss Inman's class celebrated a Halloween party on Wednesday, October 26. . . .Both November classes are planning graduation ceremonies which will be held on November 22 at the Junior College. . . .Mrs. Bibby's class had a bridal shower for Ms. Simmond who will marry soon. . . .Dr. Phillip Bobo talked to Mrs. Fredd's class on child abuse. . . .The week-end LPN class had passport pictures made for their State Board applications and went to Bryce Hospital for a tour. They have also been invited to tea and to tour West Alabama General Hosiptal. They have also toured Estes Glen Haven nursing home and were treated to refreshments while there. . . .They to tour Partlow the middle of November and to have speakers from Hale and Green county hospitals the week of November 14. . . .Congratulations are also in order for Tonya Langford (week-end LPN class). She will marry Joey Nail in late November. . . .The selection committee met October 26 to select the 1983-84 November 3-11 and week-end classes scheduled to begin on November 28.

****

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

Bill Smith from the Fire College will present a short program for the faculty and students at the Technical Division this week. The class will discuss fires in homes and how to extinguish them. . . .A three-day pump school ended last week at the Fire College. Approximately 20 operators from around the state participated in the school. . . .A Waterous Pump Mechanic seminar under the instruction of Heinz GWE will be held in Shelton's new diesel shop November 28 - December 1. Waterous company, which is out of St. Paul, Minn., will tech students how to tear out a fire pump.

****

DON'T FORGET THAT FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, IS VETERANS DAY.!!!!!!!!!!